

Trina Bartlett

Trina Bartlett is the Director of Community Impact for the United Way of the Eastern Panhandle, where one of her primary responsibilities is facilitating community partnerships to address community needs. She has nearly 20 years experience working in a variety of capacities in the health and human services field to identify and develop strategies for solving community problems. She has a Masters Degree in Social Work from West Virginia University and a Bachelors Degree in Communication from Ohio University. She lives in Martinsburg with her husband Giles Snyder and their two children, Shepherd and Kendall.